WESTCHESTER TOWN ELECTIONS.

A Lively Contest for the Mayoralty town elections in Westchester County are being held to-day. While the Democrats are sure to elect a majority of Supervisors in the twency-two towns the Republicans are making a hard fight.

There is a lively contest in progress in the City of Yoakers where there are three candidates for Mayor—James if. Weller, Republican; Frank T. Holder, Democrat, and Demois Murphy, Independent Democrat. For the first time a Supervisor for each of the five wards in Yoakers will be elected under the new act of the Legislature. The Democrats claim that they will have three of the five, as well as a majority of the Athermen.

In the town of Eastchester, which formerly contained the village of Mount Vernen, now a city, the citizens are voting for town officers as usual. The first election for city officers in Mount Vernon will take place on May 17.
